

Just Like Before

This song I wrote when a good friend of mine was going through a divorce. Some of the lines are taken from conversations with him and how he tried so hard to keep his marriage alive but in the end it was lost.

Mark Henry Ham